

How do I identify which machine I have?

The easiest way to do this is to look at the information on the “silver sticker”. This is mounted to the deck, between the engine and the lower handle.

This sticker contains some very important information. Some of the most important details are the name of the product, the article number of the model and the unique serial number of your machine.

